BUFFALOEDA Team of Jack Tars
Goes Down to Defeat.

Another baseball aggregation heralded as one of the fast teams from the far away Orient, yesterday went the way that former crack teams from the same place have done when they struck the local players. This time it was a team from the U. S. S. Buffalo, who are returning home on the transports, and they went down to defeat before the Punahou 13-6.

The game was played on the Oahu College campus yesterday, commencing at 5 p. m. It was interesting from the fact that a large number of sailors were on hand, and they kept things lively with their yells, sallies and quips and general enthusiasm, especially in the first part of the game.

The team as a whole played very good ball, considering the fact that they have been on the water for nearly a month. They were shy on good pitchers, two being used during the game. One of the box artists had a most peculiar jerky delivery, and he also had palpitation of one leg, which caused the small boys on the side lines to exclaim, "Gee, get onto the jig." Punahou played some men from other local teams, and had no difficulty in sailing away from their nautical friends, who, however, played a good game and went down to defeat good naturedly, with flags flying.

The score by innings and the teams are as follows:

Punahou	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Buffaloes	1	2	0	0	2	4	2	0	13

Punahou.—E. Desha, p.; Ahrens, p.; S. Judd, c.; J. Woods, lb.; Bushnell, 2b.; Van Vliet, ss.; H. Williams, 3b.; G. Desha, lf.; E. Fernandez, cf.; A. Castle, rf.

Buffaloes.—Hargis, p.; Caulfield, c.; Kelly, lb.; Robins, 2b.; Johnson, 3b.; Blair, ss.; Kupper, lf.; Johnson, cf.; Smith, rf.

MAUI HAS GOOD
AUTO-STAGE LINE

"There's something on the Island of Maui, which I think is worth honorable mention," Attorney C. W. Ashford said yesterday.

"A man named Dow is running an automobile stage across country, and I tell you it is a great accommodation to travelers."

"I was driven in the auto-stage from Lahaina to Wailuku and made the twenty-five miles in one hour and forty minutes, or at the rate of a mile in four minutes."

"The road is very fair, only the road boards should be stirred up to clear it of a great many small stones lying loose upon it. These are bad for either steel or rubber tires, but especially for the rubber. It would not cost more than $10 to have the stones removed."

MUST KEEP SOBER THREE YEARS

NEW YORK, July 20.—If Clark A. Miller of New Rochelle abstains from intoxicating liquors of all kinds for a period of three years he will receive a fortune of several hundred thousands of dollars left him by his brother, Dean Miller, who killed himself recently in a hotel in Buffalo. If he yields to the temptation to drink he will lose the fortune, for that is the condition of the will, and the total is said to run close to the million mark. Dean Miller ended his life for the avowed reason that John D. Rockefeller is absorbing all the business interests of the country.

Miller sat in his library at his home at New Rochelle and pondered over how long he could abstain from the delicious cocktail. He declared to a reporter that he did not know whether he would abstain from drink for three years or not. Half of the estate was left to Dr. Charles G. Miller, another brother of Dean Miller. The other half of the estate was left to Clark A. Miller, in trust, to receive from the executors the income from his portion for life.

However, should Clark A. Miller not abstain from intoxicating drinks his wife is to receive one-half of the income. If the heir, for three years, does not imbibe to excess the executors are directed to give him half of the principal, or, at their discretion, the whole amount of the trust fund.

ENJOYABLE DANCE AT HAWAIIAN

The dance given at the Hawaiian Hotel last evening for the officers and passengers on the Solace and Lawton was even more successful than the one given Wednesday evening. At that time the dance lasted until 2 a. m. and after midnight last night there were over thirty couples on the floor and many remained until the small hours this morning.

Manager Church has left nothing undone to make the stay of the transport people a delightful one, and to that end his series of three dances has added much to their enjoyment. Both last night and Wednesday nights' dances were all that could be desired and it is expected that tonight's dance will eclipse the others in attendance and enjoyment.

FIRE DRILL AND FIRE

PRETTY FAST WORK.

Assistant Chief Deering then shot an arrow from a gun, thus carrying a line over the tower. A heavy rope was hauled to the top and made fast and the group of firemen on the roof slid to the ground in lightning time. Next the alarm was sounded and a hosecart and its crew dashed out of the station and up Fort street to a hydrant. The hose was given a turn around the hydrant and the wagon came back, with the horses on the gallop, "stretching in" the line of hose. In barely three minutes from the time when the gong struck a line of hose was at the top of the four story tower and a crew of men were at the nozzle. Next the sixty-five foot extension ladder was brought from the truck and raised to the full extent. A man was at the top of the ladder within 46 seconds of the time when the ladder was first taken from the ground. The concluding number of the program was a drill with the life net. Men jumped from the second and third story windows into the net held by their comrades below.

At the close of the drill, the members of the Board of Supervisors present, Acting Governor Atkinson and many others extended their congratulations to Chief Thurston and his men for their excellent work. Many other citizens took the occasion to compliment the fine work of the firemen. Assistant Chief Deering directed the drills yesterday afternoon and Chief Thurston explained things to the guests. The party of officials inspected the fire station before the drill.

Three pake opium sellers were fined $50 apiece by Judge Whitney yesterday.

Cheek Sing, the Ewa chicken thief, was captured yesterday morning.

RECENTLY RELATED.

In a recent article on Americans an English writer gives the following as a characteristic American after-dinner story, its subject being a politician in bathing: "All at once a shark, a man-eater, was coming the other way, and swam up squarely in front of him. They eyed each other for a moment and then the shark—blushed and sped away."

Locker Sampson, whose name is inseparably connected with the Rowfant library, now awaiting some such customer on the shelves of a New York book house, once complained to Bedford, the famous bookbinder, that one of his recently bound treasures "cockled;" that is to say, opened of its own accord. Bedford, scrutinizing first the book and then the owner, said with great severity: "You've been reading it."

An Englishman in Canada writes home in considerable excitement as follows: "The majority of Canadians never read an English paper of any kind whatever; all their literature is American. All the bookstores' shops are filled with American books, American reviews, American papers. And with what result? There can be only one result—Canadians will think 'Americanly.'"

Gen. Miles has a story of a corporal in a regiment under his command in the old Indian fighting days. This corporal was much chafed by his comrades for his oft-repeated expressions of belief in "fatality" and "destiny." One day it appears that the corporal, while off duty, was preparing to take a little horseback exercise and recreation. A private observed that the corporal took care to attach a brace of pistols to his saddle. "Hello!" shouted the private to the corporal, "what are you taking the guns for? They won't save you if your time has come." "True for you," grimly responded the corporal, "but I may happen to meet an Apache whose last day has come."

The vitality of the snail is remarkable. One that was glued to a card in a museum for four years came to life on being immersed in warm water. Some specimens in the collection of a naturalist revived after they apparently had been dead for 15 years.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FOURTH CIRCUIT TERRITORY OF HAWAII, AT CHAMBERS—IN PROBATE.

1.—Land contained in Grant 3142 to J. P. Parker in Kaaokii, Hamakua; area 125 acres.

2.—The land in Paauhau, Waea, Makakoulo, Keahua, and Kalapa, within the boundaries of the lease of J. P. Parker and S. Parker to W. G. Irwin & Company, dated July 1, 1886, of record in Liber 101, page 175; total area, 1074.59 acres.

3.—The lands of Waea, Makakoulo and Keahua, adjoining the land before described; area 745.1 acres.
